“Enter through the narrow gate.” Lk 13:24

Dear friends,

On Wednesday, August 25th, we welcomed back our students, teachers, and parents. Since many are away at various times during the summer, I thought it would be helpful to review our summer season at St. Pius:

June 7-23: Dominican Friars hold provincial chapter: Fr. Albert reassigned as of Jan. 1 to St. Gertrude's as assistant novice master;

June 12: Parish golf tournament a success;

June 15: Joseph Dooley and Emmit O'Rourke become Eagle Scouts;

June 19: St. Pius volunteers honored;

June 25: Dominican Sisters celebrate 150th anniversary;

Construction/Repair projects begin: convent, gym, principal's office, priory trim (The bell tower repair and church fire codes are upcoming);

July 1: Charlie da Silva begins as priory administrative assistant;

July 22: Brewster-Thornton Architects conclude campus site plan;

Youth Ministry scavenger hunt;

July 19-22: Vacation Bible School;

July 20: 8th grade Confirmation letters sent (Confirmation – Nov. 10 – Bishop Tobin);

Parish meets Catholic Charity goal;

August 1: Barbara Dwyer begins as assistant principal;

August 7-8: St. Dominic's Feast celebrated with Franciscans and cookout.

Thank you to everyone willing to "enter through the narrow gate" by providing faith-filled services to God and our parish family in the above events. Please review your own summer and give thanks to God for your personal and family graces.

In Jesus,

Fr. Ken
